MUR # 5662

Dear Madam/Sir:

I was referred to you by the Michigan Secretary of State's Office regarding a campaign finance complaint I filed with them (Exhibit #4). According to the response letter I received from them, our state laws do not apply to campaigns for members of Congress (Exh. #3). For this reason, I would appreciate your pursuing my complaint based on any similar federal laws.

The essence of my complaint is the anonymous nature of a full-page paid political advertisement which appeared in our local newspaper about a month ago (Exh. #1). When I contacted my local county clerk about it, she confirmed that this is illegal under our Michigan Campaign Finance Act (Exh. #5). She also confirmed that no "Independent Expenditure Report" had been received at her office to report the considerable expense of the full-page ad ($4,000-4,500 estimated, based on display ad rates at the newspaper). According to our state expenditure report instructions, it is required for expenditures over $100 "to support or oppose the nomination or election of a candidate or advocate the qualification, passage or defeat of a ballot question...". (Exh. #6)

When I called the newspaper's content editor, Mike Tyree (Exh. #2), he dismissed my inquiry by saying, "It's not a campaign issue. There's no campaign going on...", even though the ad clearly refers to US Representative (Dave) Camp and the 2006 election ("When 2006 comes around let's all vote for someone else.") Mr. Tyree refuses to divulge the identity of the anonymous "A Concerned Citizen" who paid for the ad. I also contacted the post office to find out who has the P.O Box printed in the ad, but they refuse to give me that information, citing privacy laws.

My question to you is whether this is legal under our national campaign laws. Doesn't the voting public have a right to know who is underwriting paid messages about candidates and issues? I am alleging that the Traverse City Record-Eagle newspaper, which published the ad, and "A Concerned Citizen", who paid for the ad, are violating campaign finance laws that provide for full disclosure. Let me know if I can provide any further information and how you plan to proceed. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mary Ann Galic

been involved in this case. He knew those judges unanimously agreed that she had no chance for recovery and that she had made it clear that she did not want to be kept alive via artificial means in such a circumstance. Did he think that he knew more than all of the judges and experts combined? Even a politician couldn't possibly be that arrogant. Therefore, there must have been some other reason for his vote.

2. Perhaps he just followed his leaders. If so, we should look at their actions. For example, Senate Majority Leader, Bill Frist, provided a diagnosis in this case which violated basic medical practice and ethics. He knew that as a heart surgeon, he was not qualified to make any brain related diagnosis. Worse still, he made it based on his review of a four-year old video tape. He did not consult any of the medical experts, review any charts, or have any contact with the patient. He certainly knew that this was not the way to diagnose anything let alone brain damage. Then there is the ethically challenged House Majority Leader, Tom DeLay. He condemned the removal of the tube as being grossly inhumane and yet he made the decision not to even try to save his own father in a similar situation. Does that mean that we should never try to save our loved ones for fear that they would be doomed to an existence that they did not want? Certainly Rep. Camp can't justify following orders from leaders like these. If so, it would remind him that we elected him to think for himself and act for all his constituents, not just his party bosses.

3. Perhaps he believes that no one should be allowed to make their own end of life decisions. This would be a huge violation of our constitutional rights and at odds with his party's position on keeping government out of our lives. Surely he can't believe that the Federal government another reason for his vote.

4. Unfortunately, it is the worst reason of all - Self-interest. Nothing else mattered to him but appealing to a bloc of voters hoping that they would re-elect him.

So it comes down to a single question: Do you want a Representative who will preserve and protect our constitutional rights or someone who will ignore them in hopes of getting re-elected?

When 2006 comes around let's all vote for someone else. Someone who concerns himself more with our needs than his own power and position.

Is this legal? (No, it's not.)

This is not a partisan issue. I am not, nor have I ever been, a Democrat. Paid for by (A concerned citizen)

I. Perhaps Rep. Camp may have believed that this bill was necessary to ensure that we were understood and being properly enforced. But surely he was aware of the years of court

Dear Ms. Galic:

The Department of State has received your complaint against A Concerned Citizen and the Traverse City Record-Eagle Newspaper, filed pursuant to the Michigan Campaign Finance Act (MCFA), 1976 P.A. 388, as amended.

The MCFA does not apply to members of Congress. Because your complaint involves U.S. Representative Camp, it must be dismissed by the Department of State. If you wish to pursue the complaint, you must file your complaint with the Federal Election Commission. Please refer to the FEC's web site (<http://www.fec.gov/pages/brochures/complain.shtml>) for further information on the complaint process.

Campaign Finance Complaint Form

Exhibit
(2 pages)

This complaint form may be used to file a complaint alleging that someone violated the Michigan Campaign Finance Act (the MCFA, 1976 PA 388, as amended; MCL 169.201 et seq.).

Please print or type all information.

I allege that the MCFA was violated as follows:

Section 1. Complainant
Your Name	Mary Ann Galic	Daytime Telephone Number (231) 933-8017
Mailing Address	1302 Peninsula Drive
City	State MI	Zip 49686-1955

Section 2. Alleged Violators
Name	"A Concerned Citizen" AND Traverse City Record-Eagle newspaper
Mailing Address	120 W. Front St., P.O. Box 632 Traverse City, MI 49685
City	State MI	Zip 49686

Attn: Zeke Fleet, President and Publisher.
Phone: (231) 933-1403

Name Unknown (omitted)
261902643

Section 3. Alleged Violations (Use additional sheet if more space is needed)

(1) Section(s) of the MCFA violated: 169.247, Section 47: Required information on advertisements; violation and penalty. and (2) No Independent Expenditure Report, CFR-123(190) has been filed with the County Clerk.

- Explain how those sections were violated:
- (1) No name or address appears on the enclosed advertisement that appeared in the local newspaper to show who paid for the printed matter. The ad clearly opposes re-election of Rep. (Dave) Camp in 2006. It appeared on 4-21-05.
  - (2) An Independent Expenditure Report, as enclosed, needs to be submitted to the local county clerk for expenditures over $100, which this full-page ad clearly is. The purpose of the ad is, "to... oppose... the election of a candidate."

Evidence that supports those allegations (attach copies of pertinent documents and other information)

- (1) See the enclosed full-page newspaper advertisement. Approx. cost = $4,400. calculation based on T.C. Record-Eagle's recent display ad rates of $35 per column inch x 6 columns x 21 inches. It appeared on 4-21-05.
- (2) I called Mike Tyree, News Editor/content, at the Record-Eagle newspaper (231) 946-2000, about my concern over the anonymous sponsor being a violation of the MCFA. He dismissed my question by saying, "It's not a campaign issue. There's no campaign going on," even though the ad clearly refers to Rep. Camp + the 2006 election.
- (3) I called the local post office (231) 946-5319 to find out what individual or organization holds the P.O. Box listed in the ad. They refused to give me that information, citing privacy reasons.
- (4) I called Linda Coburn, Grand Traverse County Clerk, 400 Boardman Avenue, Traverse City, MI 49684-2577, Phone (231) 922-4760, to find out if an Independent Expenditure Report has been submitted to her for the (significant) expenditure for this ad. She has received no such report to date. The time requirement on the form is 10 days. Grand Traverse County is the proper jurisdiction for filing, since the P.O. box listed is in Traverse City. Notice that no street address is given. Linda Coburn stated to me on 4-26-05 that she does believe that, based on its content, the MCFA and reporting requirements do apply to this advertisement.

Section 4 - Certification (Required)

I certify that to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry under the circumstances, each factual contention of this complaint is supported by evidence.

Section 5 - Certification without Evidence (Supplemental to Section 4)

Section 15(6) of the MCFA (MCL 169.215) requires that the signed certification found in section 4 of this form be included in every complaint. However, if, after a reasonable inquiry under the circumstances, you are unable to certify that certain factual contentions are supported by evidence, you may also make the following certification:

I certify that to the best of my knowledge, information, or belief, there are grounds to conclude that the following specifically identified factual contentions are likely to be supported by evidence after a reasonable opportunity for further inquiry. Those specific contentions are:
