SUBJECT: REASON TO BELIEVE RECOMMENDATION - FAILURE TO FILE 48-HOUR NOTICES UNDER THE ADMINISTRATIVE FINE PROGRAM

Attached is the name of a principal campaign committee that has failed to file 48-hour notices with the Commission for contributions of $1,000.00 or more received from the close of books of the 12 Day Pre-General Report up to 48 hours before the November 4, 2008 General Election in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6) and 11 CFR. § 104.5(f). The committee, Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee, represents a candidate who lost the General Election. The committee is being referred for failing to file 48-hour notices for contributions totaling $74,400.00.

A 48-hour notice is required to report all contributions of a $1,000.00 or more, to any authorized committee of a candidate, including contributions from the candidate, loans from the candidate and other non-bank sources and endorsements or guarantees of loans from banks, as per 11 CFR § 104.5(f).

We have attached an information sheet which includes the contributor name, date of receipt and amount of the contributions for which a 48-hour notice was not filed.

In accordance with the schedule of civil money penalties outlined within 11 CFR § 111.44, this committee should be assessed the civil money penalty so indicated.

Recommendation

1. Find reason to believe that Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and Eugene F. Leone, Jr., Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6) and make a preliminary determination that a civil money penalty of $7,660.00 be assessed.
2. Send the appropriate letter.

Dear Mr. Leone:

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431, et seq. ("the Act"), requires principal campaign committees of candidates for federal office to notify in writing either the Secretary of the Senate or the Federal Election Commission ("FEC"), and the Secretary of State, as appropriate, of any contribution of $1,000 or more, received by any authorized committee of the candidate after the 20th day, but more than 48 hours before, any election. 2 U.S.C. 434(a)(6)(A). The Act further requires notification to be made within 48 hours after the receipt of the contribution and to include the name of the candidate and office sought, the date of receipt, the amount of the contribution, and the identification of the contributor. Id. These notification requirements are in addition to all other reporting requirements. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a). The Act permits the FEC to impose civil money penalties for violations of the reporting requirements of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a). 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4). Our records indicate that Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee did not submit 48-Hour Notices for contributions of $1,000 or more, received between October 16, 2008 and November 1, 2008, totaling $74,400, as required by 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A). Attachment 1.

On May 12, 2009, the FEC found that there is Reason to Believe ("RTB") that Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and you as treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) by failing to file the 48-Hour Notices. Based on the FEC's schedule of civil money penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.44, the amount of your civil money penalty calculated at the RTB stage is $7,660. Please see the attached copy of the Commission's administrative fine regulations at 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.30-111.46. Attachment 2. The Commission's website contains further information about how the administrative fine program works and how the fines are calculated. <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. 11 C.F.R. § 111.34. The amount of the civil money penalty is $110 for each non-filed notice plus 10 percent of the dollar amount of the contributions not timely reported. The civil money penalty increases by 25 percent for each prior violation. Send your payment of $7,660 within forty (40) days of the finding, or by June 21, 2009.

At this juncture, the following courses of action are available to you:

1. To Pay the Calculated Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the calculated civil money penalty, send the enclosed remittance form, along with your payment, to the FEC at the address on page 4. Upon receipt of your payment, the FEC will send you a final determination letter.

2. To Challenge the RTB Finding and/or Calculated Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to challenge the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, you must submit a written response, including the AF# found at the top of page 1 under your committee's identification number, to the FEC's Office of Administrative Review, 999 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20463. Your response must be received within forty (40) days of the Commission's RTB finding, or June 21, 2009. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(a). Your written response must include the reason(s) why you are challenging the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, and must include the factual basis supporting the reason(s) and supporting documentation. The FEC strongly encourages that documents be submitted in the form of affidavits or declarations. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(c).

The FEC will only consider challenges that are based on at least one of three grounds: (1) a factual error in the RTB finding; (2) miscalculation of the calculated civil money penalty by the FEC; or (3) your demonstrated use of best efforts to file in a timely manner when prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond your control. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(b). In order for a challenge to be considered on the basis of best efforts, you must have filed the required report no later than 24 hours after the end of these reasonably unforeseen circumstances. Id. Examples of circumstances that will be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to, (1) a failure of Commission computers or Commission-provided software despite your seeking technical assistance from Commission personnel and resources; (2) a widespread disruption of information transmissions over the Internet that is not caused by a failure of the Commission's or your computer systems or Internet service provider; and (3) severe weather or other disaster-related incident. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(c). Examples of circumstances that will not be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to, (1) negligence; (2) delays caused by vendors or contractors; (3) treasurer and staff illness, inexperience or unavailability; (4) committee computer, software, or Internet service provider failures; (5) failure to know filing dates; and (6) failure to use filing software properly. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(d).

The "failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver" of your right to present such argument in a petition to the U.S. district court under 2 U.S.C. § 437g. 11 C.F.R. § 111.38.

If you intend to be represented by counsel, please advise the Office of Administrative Review. You should provide, in writing, the name, address and telephone number of your counsel and authorize counsel to receive notifications and communications relating to this challenge and imposition of the calculated civil money penalty.

3. If You Do Not Pay the Calculated Civil Money Penalty and Do Not Submit a Written Response to the RTB Finding

If you do not pay the calculated civil money penalty and do not submit a written response, the FEC will assume that the preceding factual allegations are true and make a final determination that Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and you as treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty.

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA"), as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. The FEC may take any and all appropriate action authorized and required by the DCA, as amended, including transfer to the U.S. Department of the Treasury for collection. 11 C.F.R. § 111.45.

This matter was generated based on information ascertained by the FEC in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(2). It will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A) until it is placed on the public record in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.42, unless you notify the FEC in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.

As noted earlier, you may obtain additional information on the FEC's administrative fine program, including the final regulations, on the FEC's website at <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. If you have questions regarding the payment of the calculated civil money penalty, please contact Rhiannon Magruder in the Reports Analysis Division at our toll free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 5) or (202) 694-1130. If you have questions regarding the submission of a challenge, please contact the Office of Administrative Review at our toll free number (800) 424-9530 (press 0, then ext. 1660) or (202) 694-1660.

Re: ~~Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee~~

~~C00371021~~

~~AF#: 2092~~

Dear Ms. Magruder:

In regards to your notice dated May 22, 2009, please be advised that the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee is appealing the calculated civil money penalty imposed by the FEC for the following reasons.

When our committee was originally formed, report filing software was purchased from an outside vendor. During the following four election cycles that this software was used, problems with calculating and filing the reports occurred on multiple occasions. It is important to note that every effort was made on our part to ensure that all reporting was filed accurately and on a timely basis.

The Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee has terminated business relations with the software vendor and at this point, no new vendor has been retained. The 2008 general election was not a successful election for our candidate and although we reserve the right to keep the committee active, no plans have been made to file a Statement of Candidacy for the 2010 election.

In addition to the unsuccessful election, substantial debt remains on the books for our committee and with a very limited amount of cash on hand (please refer to our most current report), there is no opportunity to settle that debt, past or present.

Due to considerable financial hardship, the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee respectfully requests that a reconsideration of the calculated civil money penalty be made.

Sincerely,

Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee
Saylee J. Merrow
Assistant to the Treasurer

The campaign committee of a candidate who participates in the general election must file pre- and post-general election reports. Separate notices will be sent to explain these additional reporting obligations. See the January 2008 Record, which can be found on the FEC web site at www.fec.gov/pdf/record/2008/jan08.pdf

Year-End	10/01/08 - 12/31/08	01/31/09	01/31/09 <sup>2</sup>

Supplemental Filing Information is available on pages 3 and 4 of this notice.

<sup>1</sup>These dates indicate the beginning and the end of the reporting period. A reporting period always begins the day after the closing date of the last report filed. If the committee is new and has not previously filed a report, the first report must cover all activity that occurred before the committee registered up through the close of books for the first report due.

<sup>2</sup>Notice that this filing deadline falls on a weekend. Filing deadlines are not extended when they fall on nonworking days. Accordingly, reports filed by methods other than Registered, Certified or Overnight Mail, or electronically, must be received before the Commission's (or for Senate candidates, the Secretary of the Senate's) close of business on the last business day before the deadline.

SUPPLEMENTAL FILING INFORMATION

PLEASE NOTE: The Commission provides reminders of upcoming filing dates as a courtesy to help committees comply with the filing deadlines set forth in the Act and Commission regulations. Committee treasurers must comply with all applicable filing deadlines established by law, and the lack of prior notice does not constitute an excuse for failing to comply with any filing deadline.

WHO MUST FILE

Principal campaign committees of all 2008 general election congressional candidates<sup>3</sup> (including unopposed candidates and candidates whose names do not appear on the ballot) must file Pre- and Post-General Election Reports.<sup>4</sup>

Campaigns that raise or spend more than $5,000 for the 2008 election cycle (and thus trigger registration and reporting requirements) must file quarterly reports throughout 2008, even if the candidate plans to retire, withdraws from the race prior to the primary election, loses the primary or drops out of the race prior to the general election. Before a committee can stop filing with the FEC, it must file a termination report with the Commission. Committees must continue to file reports until the Commission notifies them in writing that their termination report has been accepted.

METHODS OF FILING REPORTS

Electronic Filing

Reports filed electronically must be received and validated by the Commission by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the filing deadline. For additional information, call the Electronic Filing Office at (800) 424-9530 or (202) 694-1642 or visit our website at www.fec.gov/electfil/electron.shtml.

Under the Commission's mandatory electronic filing regulations, U.S. House committees that receive contributions or make expenditures in excess of $50,000 in a calendar year, or that have reason to expect to do so, must file all reports and statements with the FEC electronically. Other U.S. House committees may voluntarily file electronically; however, any entity that files electronically, whether required to do so or not, must comply with the electronic filing rules. U.S. Senate committees that file with the Secretary of the Senate are not subject to the mandatory electronic filing rules, but may file an unofficial copy of their reports with the Commission in order to speed disclosure.

Registered & Certified Mail

Reports sent by Registered or Certified Mail must be postmarked on or before the mailing deadline to be considered timely filed. A committee sending its reports by Certified Mail should keep its certified mailing receipt with the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) postmark as proof of filing because the USPS does not keep complete records of items sent by Certified Mail. A committee sending its report by Registered Mail should keep its proof of mailing. Note that a Certificate of Mailing from the USPS is not sufficient to prove that a report is timely filed using Registered, Certified or Overnight Mail.

Overnight Mail

Reports filed via overnight mail will be considered timely filed if the report is received by the delivery service on or before the mailing deadline. "Overnight mail" includes Priority or Express Mail having a delivery confirmation, or an overnight delivery service with which the report is scheduled for next business day delivery and is recorded in the service's on-line tracking system.

<sup>3</sup>Generally, an individual becomes a candidate for Federal office (and thus triggers registration and reporting obligations) when his or her campaign exceeds $5,000 in either contributions received or expenditures made. If the campaign has not exceeded the $5,000 threshold, it is not required to file reports. See 11 CFR 100.3(a).

<sup>4</sup>If a candidate has more than one authorized committee, the principal campaign committee must also file a consolidated report on Form 3Z.

Other Means of Filing

Reports filed by any other means—including first class mail and courier—must be received by the Commission (or for Senate committees, the Secretary of the Senate) before the close of business on the last business day before the filing deadline.

Forms are available for downloading and printing at the FEC website at www.fec.gov/info/forms.shtml.

48 HOUR NOTICES ON CONTRIBUTIONS

Notices are required if the committee receives any contribution (including in-kind gifts or advances of goods or services; Loans from the candidate or other non-bank sources; and guarantees or endorsements of bank loans to the candidate or committee) of $1,000 or more per source, during the period of October 16 through November 1, 2008.

The notices, which may be filed using Form 6, or under limited circumstances Form 10, must reach the appropriate federal and/or state filing office(s) within 48 hours of the committee's receipt of the contribution(s). U.S. Senate candidates must transmit the notices to the Secretary of the Senate by fax at (202) 224-1851. Campaign committees that file electronically MUST submit their 48-hour notices electronically. For more information, visit the FEC web site at www.fec.gov/electfil/online.shtml. U.S. House candidates faxing 48-hour notices should transmit them to the FEC at (202) 219-0174. Paper forms are available at the FEC web site at www.fec.gov/info/forms.shtml.

COMPLIANCE

Treasurer Responsibility. Treasurers of political committees are responsible for both the timeliness and the accuracy of all reports. They may be subject to monetary penalties if reports are inaccurate or are not filed on time. For additional information, see the Commission's Statement of Policy Regarding Treasurers Subject to Enforcement Proceedings on the web site at www.fec.gov/law/policy/2004/notice2004-20.pdf.

Administrative Fine Program. Under the Administrative Fine Program, political committees and their treasurers who fail to file their reports on time may be subject to civil money penalties up to $16,000 (or more for repeat late- and non-filers).<sup>5</sup> For additional information, visit the FEC website at www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml.

Report Format. In addition, political committees that file illegible reports or use non-FEC forms (except for FEC-approved, computer-generated forms) will be required to refile their reports.

Electronic Filers Must File Electronically. Electronic filers who instead file on paper, or who submit an electronic report (either by direct transmission, 3.5" diskette or CD) that does not pass the validation program by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the filing deadline, will be considered non-filers and may be subject to enforcement actions (including administrative fines).

IMPORTANT FILING INFORMATION - PAPER FILERS

In response to the anthrax threat, the U.S. Postal Service is irradiating mail directed to many federal agencies, including the FEC and the Secretary of the Senate.<sup>6</sup> This process has not only delayed mail delivery, it has also damaged and in some cases destroyed pieces of mail. As a result, committees that file reports with the FEC may want to consider submitting their reports by some means other than U.S. mail. Alternative methods include electronic filing, overnight mail service, and hand delivery.

<sup>5</sup>Penalties for late- or non-filing of 48-hour notices are based on the amount of contributions not timely disclosed. As a result, these penalties may exceed $16,000, even for first-time violations.

<sup>6</sup>Senate committees should contact the Secretary of the Senate at (202) 224-0322 for more on filing reports via US mail.

Reference: 30 Day Post-General Report (10/16/08 - 11/24/08)

Dear Treasurer:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. This notice requests information essential to full public disclosure of your federal election campaign finances. Failure to adequately respond by the response date noted above could result in an audit or enforcement action. Additional information is needed for the following item:

-Schedule A of your report indicates that your committee may have failed to file one or more of the required 48 hour notices regarding "last minute" contributions received by your committee after the close of books for the 12 Day Pre-General report (see attached). A principal campaign committee must notify the Commission, in writing, within 48 hours of any contribution of $1,000 or more (including contributions from the candidate) received between two and twenty days before an election. These contributions are then reported on the next report required to be filed by the committee. To ensure that the Commission is notified of last minute contributions of $1,000 or more to your campaign, it is recommended that you review your procedures for checking contributions received during the aforementioned time period. The failure to file 48-hour notices may result in civil money penalties or legal enforcement action. If any contribution of $1,000 or more was incorrectly reported, you must amend your original report with the clarifying information. (11 CFR § 104.5(f))

Please note, you will not receive an additional notice from the Commission on this matter. Adequate responses must be received by the Commission on or before the due date noted above to be taken into consideration in determining whether audit action will be initiated. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act may also result in an enforcement action against the committee. Any response submitted by your committee will be placed on the public record and will be considered by the Commission prior to taking enforcement action. Requests for extensions of time in which to respond will not be considered.

Electronic filers must file amendments (to include statements, designations and reports) in an electronic format and must submit an amended report in its entirety, rather than just those portions of the report that are being amended. If you should have any questions regarding this matter or wish to verify the adequacy of your response, please contact the Reports Analysis Division on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 5 to reach the Reports Analysis Division) or our local number (202) 694-1130 to speak with a Senior Campaign Finance Analyst.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

July 23, 2009

REVIEWING OFFICER RECOMMENDATION
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW ("OAR")

AF# 2092 – Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and Eugene F. Leone, Jr., as Treasurer
(C00371021)

On May 12, 2009, the Commission found reason to believe ("RTB") that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file 48-Hour Notices for 12 contributions totaling $74,400 associated with the 2008 General Election and made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $7,660 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.44. They were notified by the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD") on May 22, 2009 of the Commission's RTB finding and civil money penalty.

Respondents' Response

On June 22, 2009, the Commission received the written response ("challenge") from Saylee J. Merrow, assistant to the Treasurer, requesting that, due to the Committee's financial hardship, the Commission reconsider the calculation of the civil money penalty. She explains that the Committee purchased software from an outside vendor and has been using this software since it was formed. During the time that the software was used, problems with calculating and filing reports occurred on multiple occasions but they made every effort to ensure that all reporting was filed accurately and on a timely basis. At this point, the Committee has terminated relations with the software vendor and does not currently have a replacement vendor. Despite an unsuccessful election in 2008, substantial debt, and very limited cash on hand in the Committee account, they plan to keep the Committee active.

Analysis

The Federal Election Campaign Act ("Act") requires that the treasurer of a principal campaign committee of a candidate must notify the Commission, in writing, of any contribution of $1,000 or more received after the 20th day but more than 48 hours before an election. The principal campaign committee must notify the Commission within 48 hours of receipt of the contribution. The 48-hour notification shall be in addition to all other reporting requirements under the Act. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(f). The treasurer shall be personally responsible for the timely filing of reports. 11 C.F.R. § 104.14(d).

Based on a review of Commission records, there is no indication that 48-Hour Notices were filed for 12 contributions of $1,000 or more that were received between October 16 and November 1, 2008.

In response to RAD's Request for Additional Information ("RFAI") dated January 8, 2009, and the Analyst's April 16, 2009 phone call, the respondents filed a Miscellaneous Text Submission ("MS-T") on April 22, 2009 listing the 12 contributions totaling $74,400 that were inadvertently not filed during the reporting period. In it, Ms. Merrow states that the Notices were inadvertently not filed and they were unable to file the missing Notices with the campaign's usual method of reporting (Hannibal Software) because an upgrade was not available to the Committee which would bring their filing version inline with the FEC's current filing version.

In the challenge, they acknowledge recurring software issues. During the time period in which 48-Hour Notices were required, October 16 through November 1, the Committee electronically uploaded 5 Notices successfully on October 20, 22, 24, 28 and 30 for contributions totaling $141,300 but then failed to file Notices for another contribution received on October 30 and 11 on October 31. Regardless of the reason for their failure to file these Notices, a result of software problems which their vendor had not resolved or because they inadvertently failed to file them, it is the Treasurer's responsibility to ensure that they are filed on time.

Furthermore, delays caused by committee vendors or contractors, committee computer, software or Internet service provider failures and negligence are included at 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(d) as examples of circumstances that are not considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond the respondents' control. The other issue raised in the challenge (the Committee's ability to pay) also does not fall within the list of defenses at 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(b). Their challenge fails to meet any of the three valid excuses at 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(b). These are: (i) the RTB finding is based on factual errors; and/or (ii) the improper calculation of the civil money penalty; and/or (iii) they used best efforts to file on time but were prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond their control and they filed the report no later than 24 hours after the end of these circumstances.

Therefore, the Reviewing Officer recommends that the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $7,660.

OAR Recommendations

- (1) Adopt the Reviewing Officer recommendation for AF# 2092 involving the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and Eugene F. Leone, Jr., as Treasurer, in making the final determination;
- (2) Make a final determination in AF# 2092 that the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and Eugene F. Leone, Jr., as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $7,660; and
- (3) Send the appropriate letter.

Leone, Jr., as Treasurer. According to Commission records, the report covers the period from October 16 through November 24, 2008 and was received on December 4, 2008. Schedule A, Line 13a lists the receipt of a $20,000 candidate contribution in the form of a loan on October 30, 2008. Schedule A, Lines 11a, 11c, and 13a, lists the receipt of $50,400 in contributions from individuals, political committees and the candidate (in the form of loans) on October 31, 2008. Each contribution equals $1,000 or more; and
  - c) A Miscellaneous Text Submission (MS-T) electronically filed on April 22, 2009. According to Commission records, the MS-T was filed by the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee. It is from Saylee J. Mellow, Assistant to the Treasurer, Eugene F. Leone, Jr., and says that the "following F6 reports were inadvertently not filed."
4. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct and that this declaration was executed at Washington on the 23rd of July, 2009.

I respectfully request your consideration of the above information and hope that a favorable decision can be reached as to our committee's compliance with your rules and regulations.

Dear Mr. Leone:

On May 12, 2009, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and you, as Treasurer ("respondents"), violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file 48-Hour Notices for 12 contributions totaling $74,400 for the 2008 General Election. The Commission also made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $7,660 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.44.

After reviewing the written response and any supplemental information submitted by you and Commission staff, the Reviewing Officer has recommended that the Commission make a final determination in this matter. A copy of the Reviewing Officer's recommendation is attached.

You may file with the Commission Secretary a written response to the recommendation within 10 days of the date of this letter. Your written response should be sent to the Commission Secretary, 999 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20463. As a result of the anthrax threat in the Washington, DC area, US Postal Service mail delivery to federal agencies, including the Commission, has been interrupted. Until regular mail delivery resumes, you may also file your written response with the Commission Secretary via facsimile (202-208-3333) or by courier at the same address (if you use an overnight delivery service, please use zip code 20004 instead of zip code 20463). Please include the AF # in your response. Your response may not raise any arguments not raised in your original written response or not directly responsive to the Reviewing Officer's recommendation. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). The Commission will then make a final determination in this matter.

Please contact me at the toll free number 800-424-9530 (press 0, then press 1660) or 202-694-1660 if you have any questions.

Re: Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee
C00371021
AF #2092

Dear Ms. Benitz:

We have received your response of July 27, 2009 relating to our request to have the civil penalty of $7,660 due to failure of the 48 hour filing requirements abated.

I have been the Treasurer for Jeb Bradley for Congress through four election cycles. During this period, we have filed all but one 48 hour notices on a timely basis along with all required quarterly reports. In the last election cycle, we admit to not filing one 48 hour notice on time however, these contributions were included in the post general report which was filed on December 4, 2008. Obviously we made a clerical error which was remedied with the subsequent filing. We feel a penalty of $7,660 for a clerical error which has no consequences whatsoever is a bit harsh. As you are aware, the campaign is dormant with absolutely no money and an outstanding debt to the candidate of $390,000.

We respectfully request you reconsider your decision and abate the penalty. Over the four election cycles of eight years, I think you will find we have meticulously filed all required reports and have only this one mishap which is basically irrelevant.

One additional comment is that subsequent to the last election cycle, when a software update was required in order to continue filing, our software vendor would not release it unless we provided them with our entire data base, to which we refused. As a result, we have been unable to electronically file since and have filed all reports manually which we know is not in compliance but our only option.

Your anticipated cooperation in the above matter will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Eugene F. Leone, Jr.
Treasurer

Subject: Final Determination Recommendation in AF# 2092 – Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and Eugene F. Leone, Jr., as Treasurer (C00371021)

On May 12, 2009, the Commission found reason to believe (“RTB”) that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failure to file 48-Hour Notices for 12 contributions totaling $74,400 associated with the 2008 General Election. As a result, on May 12, 2009, the Commission also made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $7,660 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.44.

One June 22, 2009, the Commission received their written response (“challenge”). After reviewing the challenge, the Reviewing Officer’s recommendation (“ROR”) dated July 23, 2009 was forwarded to the Commission, a copy was forwarded to the respondents, and is hereby incorporated by reference. The Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission make a final determination that they violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a $7,660 civil money penalty because they submitted no evidence that a factual error was made in the RTB finding, that the penalty was miscalculated at RTB or that they used best efforts to file on time. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(b).

Within 10 days of transmittal of the recommendation, the respondents may file a written response with the Commission Secretary which may not raise any arguments not raised in the respondents' challenge or not directly responsive to the Reviewing Officer's recommendation. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). A response was received from the Treasurer on August 13, 2009, and a copy is attached.

This response presents no new information about the two defenses raised in the challenge and addressed in the ROR: the financial hardship the fine places on the respondents and recurring difficulty with their software vendor. They admit that they did not file one Notice and corrected this clerical error by including the contributions on the subsequent report, but contend it was "one mishap which is basically irrelevant." The ROR addressed this issue and determined that they failed to file two, not one, Notices - one for the contribution received October 30 and one for the 11 contributions received October 31 - and that the notices are required to be filed independent of the 30 Day Post-General Report filing requirement. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(f).

The response presents one new issue: their history of meticulously filing all reports. Since the respondents did not raise this new issue in the challenge, and is not directly responsive to the ROR, it is not addressed by the Reviewing Officer in this memorandum. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f)

The Reviewing Officer, therefore, recommends that the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $7,660.

OAR Recommendations

- (1) Adopt the Reviewing Officer recommendation for AF# 2092 involving the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and Eugene F. Leone, Jr., as Treasurer, in making the final determination;
- (2) Make a final determination in AF# 2092 that the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and Eugene F. Leone, Jr., as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty of $7,660; and
- (3) Send the appropriate letter.

Dear Mr. Leone:

On May 12, 2009, the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and you, as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) for failing to file 48-Hour Notices for 12 contributions totaling $7,660. By letter dated May 22, 2009, the Commission sent you notification of the RTB finding that included a civil money penalty calculated at RTB of $7,600 in accordance with the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.44. On June 22, 2009, the Office of Administrative Review received the written response from Saylee J. Merrow, your assistant, challenging the RTB civil money penalty.

The Reviewing Officer reviewed the Commission's RTB finding with its supporting documentation and the written response. Based on this review, the Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission make a final determination that the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and you, as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assess a civil money penalty in the amount of $7,660 in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.44. The basis for the Reviewing Officer's recommendation was included in the Final Determination Report, a copy of which was sent to you on July 27, 2009.

On September 8, 2009, the Commission adopted the Reviewing Officer's recommendation and made a final determination that the Jeb Bradley for Congress Committee and you, as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) and assessed a civil money penalty of $7,660. A copy of the final determination recommendation is attached.

If You Choose to Appeal the Final Determination and/or Civil Money Penalty

If you choose to appeal the final determination, you should submit a written petition, within 30 days of receipt of this letter, to the district court of the United States for the district in which the committee or treasurer reside, or transact business, requesting that the final determination be modified or set aside. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(C)(iii). Your failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver of the respondents' right to present such argument in a petition to the district court under 2 U.S.C. § 437g. 11 C.F.R. § 111.38.

If You Choose Not to Pay the Civil Money Penalty and Not to Appeal

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA") as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 ("DCIA"), 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. If you do not pay this debt within 30 days (or file a written petition to a federal district court - see below), the Commission will transfer the debt to the U.S. Department of the Treasury ("Treasury") for collection. Within 5 days of the transfer to Treasury, Treasury will contact the debtor and request payment. Treasury currently charges a fee of 28% of the civil money penalty amount for its collection services. The fee will be added to the amount of the civil money penalty that you owe. Should Treasury's attempts fail, Treasury will refer the debt to a private collection agency ("PCA"). If the debt remains unpaid, Treasury may recommend that the Commission refer the matter to the Department of Justice for litigation.

If You Choose To Pay the Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the civil money penalty, send the enclosed form and payment to the address on page 3 within 30 days of receipt of this letter.

The confidentiality provisions at 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. The file will be made a part of the public record pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 111.42(b). Although the file must be placed on the public record within 30 days from the date of the Commission's notification, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote.

If you have any questions regarding the payment of the civil money penalty, please contact Maureen Benitz on our toll free number (800)424-9530 (press 0, then ext. 1660) or (202)694-1660.

On behalf of the Commission,

Steven T. Walther
Chairman
